

Please do not let stations air the negative campaigning for 2 weeks prior to the election. They would need to air against Bush also if it is to be fair, but that is being petty and not in the public's best interest. Why don't you air some of Ralph Nader's comments and information? It would be interesting to see who and how many change their minds....